Given at his Majeſty's Caſtle of Dublin, the 17th Day of Auguſt, 1741.

By their Excellencies Command,

J. POTTER.

GOD ſave the KING.

Naples, July 25, N. S. On the 17th Advice came to Court from Meſſina, of the Arrival at that Port the 8th Inſtant, of the two Men of War the St. Philip and Parthenope, on their Return from Conſtantinople, the St. Philip having on board a Turkiſh Ambaſſadour Extraordinary, ſent to compliment the King on the Part of the Grand Signor, upon the Alliance lately concluded between them. A Courier was diſpatched ſome Dags ago to Meſſina, with the King's Orders what Honours to ſhew this Ambaſſadour, who is called Uſſeim Paſha, is Nephew of the late Grand Viſier Ajuas, and Great Treaſurer of the Ottoman Empire. The ſaid two Ships are performing Quarantine at Meſſina, and a Palace is fitting up here for the Reception of the Ambaſſadour.

Leghorn, Aug. 7, N. S. On the 23d paſt Te Deum was ſung in our Cathedral Church, for the Coronation of the Queen of Hungary. The Auſtrian and Tuſcan Military Officers, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, attended at this ſolemn Service, and were entertained at Dinner by M. de Wachtendonck. In the laſt Week two more Perſons belonging to the French Veſſel from Algiers, that has been ſome Days performing Quarantine in this Road, died of an Epidemical Fever, as appeared by many ſtrong Circumſtances; whereupon Orders were ſent from the Council of Regency at Florence, to ſet Fire to and ſink in the open Sea the ſaid Veſſel and her Cargo, conſiſting of Wooll, Tobacco, and other Goods, to the Value of 6000 Dollars. Accordingly on the 4th, one of the Great Duke's Gallies went out ſome Miles to ſee theſe Orders executed; and the Veſſel ſunk after having burnt ſix Hours. The Remainder of her Crew, conſiſting of ten Perſons, were landed naked at the Marſocco, a little Fort upon the Sea at ſome Diſtance from this City, where they are ſtrictly guarded by Parties of Soldiers and of the Town-Guard.

Breſlau, Aug. 23, N. S. On the 19th Inſtant Felt Marſhal Count Neiperg marched with his whole Army within two German Miles of Schweidnitz; the King of Pruſſia at the ſame time left his Camp at Strelin, and made a very quick March towards Schweidnitz, not far from which he encamped on the 20th. On the 21ſt Felt Marſhal Neiperg retired to a Ground which he had choſen between Baumgarten and Frankenſtein, and the ſame Day the Pruſſian Army march'd to Langſiberſdorf, a Place within a Mile and a half of Frankenſtein; and 'tis given out that Prince Leopold has been detach'd with 10000 Men, either to inveſt Neiſs, or draw Marſhal Neiperg to a Battle.
